

TUTORIAL – Creating and Using SignUpGenius, Spring 2021

STEP 1. Creating a sign-up Genius account

The easiest way to book, is to sign up for a free account at the SignUpGenius home page:

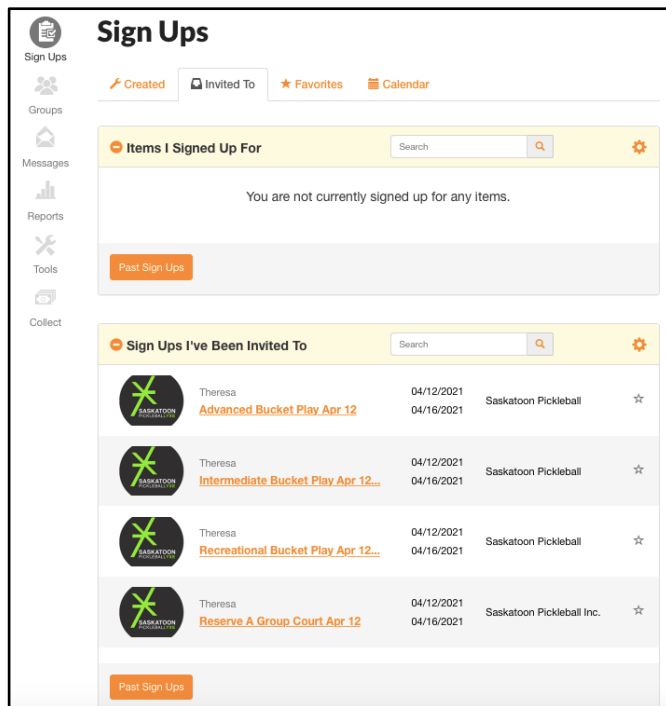

<https://www.signupgenius.com>

If you have more than one email address, please make sure you use the same email you used for your SPI membership as this is the email used by SUG. If you are unsure which email is used by SPI, please contact us at spiprograms9@gmail.com.

Please note that as an SPI member, you will be able to respond to SignUpGenius invitations like the one shown here, without creating your own SUG account.

SPI will send a SUG invitation out weekly with links to signups for the following week. Just click the activity that interests you for access. However, without your own SUG account, functionality is definitely not as good. It's much easier to see what's available and what you've already signed up for, if you have your own SUG account.

Once you create the account, you will receive a confirmation from SignUpGenius to "Activate your Account". Follow instructions.

STEP 2: How to Sign Up for Activities (Except Reserve-A-Court. For that, see step 4)

If you are a current member of Saskatoon Pickleball Inc. (SPI), your email will automatically be added to the “Members 2022”. For new members this addition may take up to 24 hours.

Once you have your membership, have registered for a SignUpGenius account and activated it, you should have access to all the Sign-Ups available at Uptown Jack’s. (Screen shot to left shows examples of what you might see.)

Generally, there are two types of activities that will be available at Uptown Jack’s - “bucket play” and “reserve-a-court”.

Recreational Bucket Play Apr 12

This level of play is for people who are looking for more social, less competitive play. Players in this group can include a variety of skill levels from those who are new to the game to people who might have been playing for several years.

Insurance requires all players must be members of Saskatoon Pickleball Inc. Thank you!

For Reserve-a-court, one individual (the lead member) will first sign up for the court.

Please note that the LEAD members on reserve-a-court MUST include the full first and last names of all players in the comments area. Please also make sure that all the named “additional members” on your court also go on to SignUp Genius and sign up for the court. This is necessary to confirm they are part of the group and not a placeholder, they are member in good standing, and our attendance list is accurate. If these steps are not followed, your court could be cancelled so please make sure you and ALL members of your court follow these steps.
